47 STUDENTS AT LUTHERAN SESSIONS HERE

Lutheran theological students from 11 foreign countries are in Gettysburg to hear American church leaders discuss Lutheranism in the United States at a conference sponsored by the National Lutheran Council.

The 47 foreign students were welcomed by Dr. Harry F. Baughman, president of the Lutheran Seminary where the sessions are being held, who spoke at the opening worship service.

Dr. A. R. Wentz, former president of the seminary, addressed the Friday afternoon session on "American Lutherans and the Ecumenical Movement."

Pointing out the characteristics of American Lutheranism, Dr. Wentz emphasized that Lutherans in this country have refused to be "an accommodation group," insisting always on confessional representation in ecumenical relationships.

Rev. Korte Is Chaplain

Rev. David Granskov, secretary of the national Lutheran council's department of theological cooperation, spoke on "Trends in Theology in the Lutheran Churches in the U. S." Friday.

Twenty-nine of the 47 students are from Germany, four are from Norway, three from Hong Kong, three from India, and two from Ethiopia. Other students represent Finland, Sweden, Denmark, Austria, Tanganyika (East Africa), and Japan.

The Rev. Edwirth Korte, chaplain of Gettysburg College, acted as chaplain for the conference.

The group came to Gettysburg from Washington, D. C., where each student was entertained on Thanksgiving Day in an American home.

The conference opened Wednesday evening in Washington when Dr. Paul C. Empey, executive director of the National Lutheran Council, spoke on "The Lutheran Church in the United States—Mid-Merger Movements."

25-VOICE D. C. CHORUS TO SING HERE

The Union Wesley Gospel Chorus of 25 voices of the Union Wesley A.M.E. Zion Church of Washington, D. C., will make their second appearance here in a sacred concert of spirituals. The program will be given at the Lutheran Theological Seminary Chapel on Sunday, December 6, at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Elsie Keyes is the director. The program will be sponsored by the committee on cooperation with the St. Paul A.M.E. Zion Church, the Rev. Lena Parr, pastor.

The public is invited to attend. The program will be as follows: Processional "Onward Christian Soldiers"; invocation, Rev. Robert A. MacAskill, pastor of the Presbyterian Church; selections "My Good Lord Has Been Here," "Cantabile Lord," "Hush, Hush in Bright Mansion Above," "Great Camp Meeting"; solo, Mrs. Esther Williams; instrumental solo, Mrs. Gilda Taylor; solo, Mrs. Elsie Keyes; duet selections, Mrs. Ada Walker and Mrs. Bertha Barnes; selections "Soldiers in the Army, I'll Be with Thee"; offertory with Rev. Dr. Paul L. Reaser, pastor of St. James Lutheran Church, in charge; selections "Old Time Religion," "He's A Mystery," "God Is So Good to Me." The benediction will be given by Rev. Lena Parr.

The offering will be used for the renovation program of the church. At present the parsonage is being renovated.

Ninety-two-year-old Mrs. Anna M. Wetzel, Orrtanna, is reported doing well as can be expected in the Warner Hospital where she was admitted as a patient after suffering a fracture of her left hip in a fall at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harman H. Spence, Orrtanna. The fracture was reduced Wednesday.

How You Can Be Gyped!

Fleeing the public is an ancient craft, and never more lucrative than in today's opulent America.

But the snake-oil peddler of yesterday has taken on refinement. He may offer to find you business opportunities, enable you to make some extra money at home, help you get rid of your house, or promise to rejuvenate your creaking physique.

Very often his victims are persons least able to afford it.

In a five-part series writer Bernard Gavzer explores the most common and profitable rackets. He tells how they operate, and how the public can avoid them.

These schemers and gypers have been reaping their greedy profits to the old saw, "A sucker's born every minute."

You'll be surprised to read on how easily you can be cheated out of your savings.

Read the first of this series in the Gettysburg Times beginning Monday.

MISS SANDERS, R. L. WARREN ARE WED TODAY

The Zion Lutheran Church, Fairfield, was the scene today of the marriage of Miss Nancy Ann Sanders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David A. Sanders, Fairfield, and Rodney Lynn Warren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Warren, Fairfield. The couple was married in a double-ring ceremony at 2 p.m. performed by the Rev. Otto Kroeger.

The church was decorated with white chrysanthemums and palms. Miss Helen McClell presented a 15-minute organ recital before the ceremony. The soloists were Raymond Gilliam and Eugene Cline. They sang "I Love You Truly," "Wither Thou Goest," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor-length gown of silk organza and Chantilly lace fashioned with a scoop neckline inset with lace and sequins. The gown featured a fitted bodice and brief sleeves above a bouffant skirt. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell to a matching lace and seed pearl crown. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Sister Is Attendant

Miss Barbara Sanders, Bryn Mawr, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She was attired in a ballerina-length gown of romance blue silk organza.

Countian Injured In Auto Accident

Two persons were injured and $900 damage done when an auto failed to negotiate a curve Thursday evening at 8:30 o'clock at Tyrone, Carroll County, Md.

A sedan driven north on Maryland Rt. 97 by Frank Salts Jr. 19, Bakersville R. 1, N. C., failed to negotiate a sharp S curve and tore down three traffic signs and a telephone pole.

Injured in the accident was the driver, Salts, who received a lacerated nose and a badly bruised right shoulder, and Charles E. Whitson, 31, of S. Queen St., Littlestown, who had right eye lacerations.

Both of the injured were taken care of by a doctor in Westminster, state police reported. There was $900 worth of damage to the sedan in accident.

COUNTY MAN HONORED BY HANOVER JCC

A Littlestown R. 2 man was selected by the Hanover Junior Chamber of Commerce as the outstanding young farmer of the Hanover area.

Honored Wednesday evening at the annual banquet of the Hanover Jaycees was Mervin K. Myers, Littlestown R. 2, chosen by the group to represent the Hanover area at the outstanding young farmer banquet to be held by the state Jaycees March 4 at Meadville.

Robert W. Winebrenner, president of the Hanover Junior Chamber, also presented certificates of merit to three other young farmers: Thomas R. Murren, Hanover R. 4; Harold Raubenstine, Hanover R. 1; and George W. Stock, New Oxford R. 1.

Zettie Was Judge

Myers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. H. Myers, Littlestown R. 2, is a 1948 graduate of Littlestown High School. He operates a farm of 111 acres and has a herd of 31 registered Guernsey cattle. He is a member of the Pennsylvania Farmers Association, the York County and Pennsylvania Guernsey Breeders Associations and the American Guernsey Cattle Club.

Archie C. Hug, assistant York County farm agent; T. M. Malin, vocational agriculture adviser of York and Lancaster Counties, and Frank Zettie, Adams County farm agent, served as judges in selection of the candidates.

Richard A. Pennay, farmer field man for the state agriculture stabilization and conservation committee, addressed the meeting. Russell Weaver, master of the Grange, extended a welcome and Curvin A. Wentz, past master, gave the invocation. C. Lawrence Benford, former president of the Jaycees, presided as master of ceremonies.

FRESHMEN TO PRESENT PLAY

"Dear Delinquent," a comedy in three acts, will be presented December 3, 4 and 5 by an all-freshman cast at Gettysburg College.

The satire is sponsored by the Owl and Nightingale players, college dramatic society, and directed by Dr. Richard A. Arms, director of dramatics. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. in Brua auditorium. The public is invited to attend, and tickets are available by addressing Dr. Arms at Gettysburg College.

The play by Jack Popplewell ran a year and a half in London. It involves a teen-age girl burglar, apprehended by a young playboy while she is rifling his apartment. Although he is engaged, she proceeds to fall in love with him.

The antics of a widowed mother, eccentric uncle, irate fiancée and adamant father provide delightful complications, it was said.

Cast in leading roles are Douglas A. Truax, Berwick, as David Warren, the playboy, and Miss Linda Weaver, Tower City, as Penelope Shawn, the burglar. Eight other freshmen complete the cast.

Ruritan Club Hears Dr. Bryan

Dr. Herbert Bryan, New Oxford, an official of the state Department of Public Instruction, was the speaker at the November meeting of the Hunterstown Ruritan Club Friday evening at the Great Conewago Presbyterian Church. Women of the church served the dinner.

Dr. Bryan told about his visit during Navy duty in World War II to the Kalapaua Leprosy Colony in the Hawaiian Islands where 500 lepers were under care. Modern medicine can cure leprosy, he said, if the patient receives treatment in time.

Vice President John K. Lott presided at the meeting in the absence of President Oren H. Wilson. Cleason Stoner Jr. and Melvin Tressler were received as new members. Ray Shupe, Robert Borden and Donald Rhodes were appointed as an auditing committee.

Francis Starnier, chairman of the entertainment committee, announced that the club's next meeting will be the annual Christmas party for members and their wives on December 21 at St. John's Reformed Church, New Chester.

ASSIGN COUNTY SOLDIER

Pvt. Robert H. Cashman, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Cashman, York Springs, has been assigned to Company D, 6th Battalion, 2nd Training Regiment at Fort Jackson, S. C., for eight weeks of basic combat training. Upon arrival at Fort Jackson, he was issued clothing and given a complete physical examination and a comprehensive battery of aptitude tests.

Santa Turns On Christmas Lights Here

Santa Claus is shown turning on the lights in Gettysburg's new borough Christmas decorations in the center of the town Friday night. Santa, who arrived by car, was surrounded by kiddies instantly and accompanied by a volunteer "court" of children moved to the switch near the Plaza which turned on the lights. Ralph K. Will, chairman of the Retail Merchants committee which secured and placed the decorations, is shown at the right of Santa. Beside him is Councilman George W. Naugle, who represented Burgess Wilbur Plank and the borough council in the formal turning on of the lights. Naugle was scheduled to make this speech: "I am representing the mayor of Gettysburg. It gives me great pleasure to hand you the key that will turn on these beautiful Christmas lights," but Santa was too busy saying hello to children to permit speechmaking.

More than 2,000, about 90 per cent children, packed Lincoln Square sidewalks for the turning on of the lights. After the brief ceremony Santa made his way across the street to his shanty where he welcomed the kiddies for the next two hours. Santa returns December 11 to be in his shanty nightly until December 24 to greet the children. (Times Photo)

Local Woman's Brother Gift Answers Writes From Typhoon-hit Area Of Japan; Urges Help Are Found In Local Stores

"We need clothing, food, blankets, just anything," Robert C. Haith, who is serving with the U.S. Air Force in Japan, wrote in a letter to his sister, Mrs. Donald Young, 247 Highland Ave., after helping with supply and rescue work in the typhoon-devastated area of Japan recently.

"The town of Nagoya, the town in which I reside, was hit the hardest," he wrote. "Three thousand five hundred seventy-nine dead, 2,000 injured, thousands missing and 20,000 plus homeless."

"You would never believe it. I didn't until I saw it. Last Wednesday I worked on a helicopter pushing out packages of food and blankets to the victims on roof tops."

"Need Clothing, Food, Blankets. Dead all around, no drinking water, no food and no dry land. That day I noticed lots of fires burning and I thought it was fires for warmth. They weren't. They were cremating the dead. There were many to try to carry out. We were interested only in saving those who were injured and survivors. I just can't tell you or describe to you the magnitude of the destruction. The next day I just couldn't make it. I was sick from what I had seen—all those poor people and nothing I could do to help. We need clothing, food, blankets, just anything."

In another letter a few days later, Mr. Haith wrote: "As winter is approaching with cool nights, my heart goes out to those people still living on and partially in houses that are still under water. Everyone in Japan that I know has given something in some way or another."

"Fashion shows, benefits, contributions are being started and help is flowing in from everywhere. It's not enough. Every bit of help that can be mustered will

Snow In Texas; 63 Degrees In Philadelphia; Frisco Is Without Rain For 70 Days

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
San Franciscans prayed for rain Saturday.

Their prayers were but one facet of a gravely awry weather picture in the nation. There was a rare appearance of snow in east Texas and Alabama, temperatures Friday night of 60 in Boston and 63 in Philadelphia, and lashing wind and rain in the Tampa, Fla., area.

Friday marked the 70th day without rain in San Francisco. Roman Catholic Archbishop John J. Mitty instructed pastors in 243 northern California parishes to lead prayers for rain.

James A. Pike, Episcopal bishop of California, asked all his parishes to do the same.

Dry In Los Angeles
Los Angeles, too, was experiencing unusually dry weather. Only twice in 82 years has there been so little rain in the Southern California city for the period since July 1. This year's rainfall for the period was .06 inch. In 1937 there was .01 inch and in 1938 .02 inch. The normal rainfall is 1.82 inches.

Snowflakes filtered down on east Texas. U.S. Forest Service officials said the light fall coupled with cold weather helped control brush fires which have blackened 40,000 acres of pasture. Long-time residents remember few instances of snow in that portion of the state.

Storm In Tampa
Light snow also was reported at Huntsville, Ala.

Winds up to 48 m.p.h. and heavy rains tore at the Tampa Bay area on Florida's west coast. Several small boats were damaged when 12-foot waves sent them crashing into a seawall. Other larger craft were swamped. Some residents were without electricity for several hours.

Elsewhere, cold hung over wide portions of the country, the lowest temperatures were about 5 below zero registered in eastern North Dakota and northwest Minnesota.

Thanksgiving Death Toll Reaches 307; Expect More

A quickened pace of highway traffic deaths marked the halfway point of the four-day Thanksgiving holiday Saturday.

The toll of deaths which initially was about four deaths an hour fell off to less than three during the hours early Friday. Then late Friday and early Saturday the grim count regained the four-an-hour mark.

Heavier road traffic and icy highways in wide areas from the Appalachian Mountains to the Rockies were possible causes of the increased rate of highway slaughter.

Cold, rainy weather was blamed, came in vehicular traffic.

Prof. Glatfelter Is Historians' Speaker

Dr. Charles H. Glatfelter, associate professor of history at Gettysburg College, will be the speaker at the December meeting of the Adams County Historical Society to be held next Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock at the court house. His subject will be "The Lutheran and Reformed Churches in Adams County in the 18th Century."

The program will follow a brief business meeting with President J. M. Sheads presiding.

REW WILL BE HELD FEB. 14 AT COLLEGE

"The Message and Mass Media" will be the theme of Religious Emphasis Week February 14-17 at Gettysburg College, according to an announcement today by Robert J. Menges, general chairman of a nine-student committee in charge.

Menges is also president of the Luther League of America, 60,000-member national youth organization of the United Lutheran Church in America. He is a senior psychology major from Menges Mills, Pa.

During "REW" the college faculty will examine the roles of music, art, advertising, periodicals, literature, motion pictures and drama in religious communication, Menges said.

Sponsored By SCA

"Religious Emphasis Week at Gettysburg College annually features lectures by Christian leaders brought to the campus to conduct discussions on a thought-provoking religious theme. Sponsored by the Student Christian Association, the event is completely student conceived."

"The college considers 'REW' a high point of the school year—vitality important to spiritual strengthening of faculty and students," a Gettysburg spokesman said.

Gettysburg, oldest Lutheran college in America, has an enrollment of over 1,600, including 550 women. The liberal arts institution is located in the setting of a historic national shrine, the famed battlefield, near the site of Abraham Lincoln's immortal address.

BRISK TRADE ON FARMERS' MART TODAY

Souse joined the ranks of other pork products at the Farmers' Market this morning selling at 25 cents a square.

Trade in fresh pork products, which have been on the market for the past several weeks, continued briskly. There was scrap, 30 cents a pound; tenderloin, $1 a pound; shoulder roast, 50 cents a pound; pigs' feet, 15 cents each or 55 cents for a set of four. Butt ends of cured ham sold at 60 cents a pound.

Among the other pork products was smoked sausage, 65 cents a pound; cracklings, 10 cents a pound; fresh bacon, 45 cents a pound; hog maw, 60 cents each, and sausage, 60 cents a pound. Sliced fresh ham brought 70 cents a pound.

A number of apples were available for $1.25 a half bushel: Stayman, Red and Golden Delicious, Jonathan, Smokehouse, Paradise and Grimes Golden. Dried sweet apples were 30 cents a quart.

Other Products

There were homemade noodles, 30 cents a pint; homemade bread, 30 cents a loaf; sugar cookies, 30 cents a dozen; cinnamon apples, 25 cents a half dozen; sugared crab apples, 40 cents a quart; preserved peaches, 40 cents a quart; cupcakes, 30 cents a dozen, and a variety of home-

Initiate Two Into Classics Society

Two local students have been initiated into Eta Sigma Phi, national recognition society for undergraduate students of the classics, at Gettysburg College, according to an announcement today by Dr. John G. Glenn, professor of Latin, advisor.

They are: Gabriel Deutsch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Steven Deutsch, 628 Fairview Ave., and Richard Dracha, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Dracha, 257 E. Middle St. Dracha is a graduate of Gettysburg High School and is a sophomore history major. Deutsch is a graduate of Talmudical Academy of Baltimore and is a freshman Latin major.

The association aims at furthering interest in and appreciation of classic literature. Dr. Glenn said. Students who have maintained at least a B average for two semesters are eligible for membership.

COURT RULES AGAINST WITT IN MOTEL CASE

The Adams County court today ruled that Paul G. and Jean E. Witt have not proved that the Colt Park Development Co. planned to restrict all of the land it owned to residential purposes and directed that its original decree dismissing an injunction sought by Witt against the Steinwehr Development Co. be made final.

The court's six-page opinion was on the exceptions to adjudication raised by Witt after the court made its decision which in effect permitted construction of the Howard Johnson Motel along Steinwehr Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Witt, owners of properties within the Colt Park area, claimed that construction of the motel violated the restrictions placed on the "Colt Park" area which the Witts asserted included land owned by the Colt Park Development Co. along Steinwehr Ave.

Had No Restrictions

The court stated, "Building restrictions and similar covenants which restrain a man in the free enjoyment of his property are not favored in the law; they are strictly construed and are not to be extended by implication unless the parties clearly so understand and intend."

The court decided that it was not necessary for Colt Park Development Co. to prove that it did not intend to place restrictions on its land along Steinwehr Ave. but rather that it was necessary for the Witts to prove that such restrictions exist. The court ruled, "The mere fact that Colt Park Development Company imposed restrictions on 55 lots sold west of Johns Avenue does not raise any inference that the company meant thereby to obligate itself to restrict the remainder of its property. In this connection it is significant that no restrictions whatever were included in any of the deeds for land east of Johns Ave."

Defeated His Action

According to the court Witt "testified he did not rely upon any plan, he purchased according to his own view of the restrictions, and his observation of the houses surrounding the lots he bought. This fact alone is sufficient to defeat his action."

Pertaining to testimony given by S. Blaine Miller and William Musser at a hearing held in connection with the proposed sale of Colt Park land for a school, the court ruled that the two witnesses were "careful to point out that their plan was flexible and was nothing more than a preliminary plan for planning purposes and that they had not bound themselves to place restrictions on the entire tract."

Finally the court declared that statements of the Witts that "until the owners of Colt Park Development Co. contemplated a motel and were aware of the possibility of litigation if they went through with their plan they never made any representations of any sort concerning the east side of Johns St." The court said that the contention "seems to answer itself since it acknowledges that no representations of any sort were made concerning the land in question."

POLICEMAN IS CHARGED

Efforts of Gettysburg's state police Sergeant Robert Smith to assist in serving a bail piece on a Maryland man who "jumped bail" on an abortion charge has led to charges of "trespassing" and "assault" being brought against the sergeant before a Maryland magistrate.

The case started in November, 1948, when Sgt. Smith led police in a raid in which Charles C. Campbell, Boring, Md., was arrested in southern York County and charged with abortion.

Gilbert C. Rebert posted $25,000 bond in York County court to guarantee Campbell's appearance. When Campbell failed to appear in court for trial last month, the

TWO AIRMEN
SAVE 3 FROM DROWNING

(WICHITA, Kan. AP)—A man and his two children owe their lives to a couple of airmen who happened by at the right time.

Sgt. Luther McFarland and A-2C Harry Norwood were driving across an icy bridge over the Arkansas River Friday. They saw that the rail had been broken and a wave was spreading away from the bridge in the water.

Stopping to investigate, they found a car lying on its side in the river, and the two of them plunged into the cold waist-deep water.

From the car they pulled Donald Noblit, 29, and his children, Donald Allen, 6, and Joyce, 3.

Mother Is Killed

They didn't see Mrs. Donald Noblit. She was pinned partly under the car, and her body wasn't found until the vehicle was righted some minutes later.

But they couldn't have saved her, anyway. Coroner Dean Bratt said she apparently died instantly of a broken neck.

Noblit suffered a broken collar bone, rib fractures and severe shock. The girl escaped with bruises and cuts.

McFarland, 32, is from Durham, N.C., and Norwood, 24, from Wichita. Both are stationed at nearby McConnell Air Force Base.

EX-ADMIRAL
DENIES STORY
BY MARSHALL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. George C. Marshall's recently disclosed account of Army-Navy bickering over the use of aerial torpedoes during World War II has been called "utterly false" by a retired admiral.

Marshall, in an interview published posthumously by U.S. News and World Report, said the Navy balked at supplying torpedoes to Army Air Corps bombers, and the deliberately provided inadequate instruction in their use.

As a result, he said, the Army fliers never did learn how to arm the torpedoes so they would explode.

Army Pilots Show

Retired Rear Adm. Leslie E. Gehres, naval air commander in the Alaskan theater at the time, has given his own account of the incident in the current issue of U.S. News and World Report.

Gehres said the idea to equip land-based B26 bombers with torpedoes for use in the Aleutian Islands originated with Army and Navy pilots based together at Kodiak, Alaska. Far from balking he said, the army command gave unhesitating approval and worked hard to make the plan succeed.

The Army bombers lacked the special equipment of the Navy (torpedo planes, he said, making launching difficult. And the Army pilots proved slow to learn the special techniques required.

Satellite Failure
Due To Torn Cover

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Thanksgiving morn attempt to put a satellite in orbit around the moon failed because a plastic cover ripped off the payload 45 seconds after it was launched, government scientists report.

Officials at Cape Canaveral, Fla., had seen something break off the huge Atlas-Able rocket and fall flaming into the ocean shortly after it was fired. They theorized that the cover, called a fairing, had come off.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said Friday that films and telemetry records confirmed the theory. With the cover gone, the payload and third stage of the rocket apparently disintegrated.

LICENSED TO MARRY

A marriage license was issued at the court house today to Kenneth Ray Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Smith, New Oxford R. 2, and Donna Lee Graft, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Henry Graft, 607 Third St., Hanover.

Local Man Robbed Of Wallet And $5

Alfred Rhoads, 27, Gettysburg R. 5, was robbed of his wallet containing $5 in the 500 block of Cameron St., Harrisburg, Harrisburg police revealed Friday in announcing the arrest of a 17-year-old juvenile in connection with the theft.

Harrisburg Police Sgt. Norman G. Bonnevill said the youth also nearly caused the arrest of an adult in connection with the robbery.

According to the sergeant, the youth at first admitted robbing Rhoads and said a Harrisburg man assisted him. However, Rhoads told police that the man was not about at the time of the robbery.

The youth then changed his story, Harrisburg police said, and denied his part in the theft. However, police continued to hold the youth when they learned he knew much about the robbery including the color of the wallet.

Mrs. Jennie Mitchell Buried Here Today

Funeral services for Mrs. Jennie J. Mitchell, 84, of Baltimore St., widow of George F. Mitchell, who died Wednesday at the Pape Convalescent Home, were held this afternoon from the Bender Funeral Home with the Rev. Harold Mowen officiating. Interment was in the Evergreen Cemetery.

The pallbearers were Dorsey Rebert, Donald Weaver, Dorsey Rebert, Stover Small, Cloyd Shetter and Charles Kaskey.

The YWCA "Ladies' Day Out" program will include a series of three pre-Christmas sessions open to all members of the association. It has been announced.

Panamanians Demonstrate In "March Of Sovereignty"

PANAMA (AP)—Panamanians pointed up their grievances over the U.S.-controlled Canal Zone today with a "march of sovereignty" on the capital.

The day marked the 138th anniversary of Panama's independence from Spain but thousands poured into the capital to attend rallies supporting the little republic's claims of sovereignty over the canal.

U. S. troops and Panamanian National Guardsmen were held in readiness to meet a possible new outbreak of anti-American violence. Americans were urged to stay away from the center of the capital during the demonstrations.

"Peaceful Demonstrations"

University students and civic organizations sponsored the principal rally in front of the Foreign Office. They said it would be a peaceful demonstration designed "to show the United States a country united in the defense of its sovereign powers" over the Canal Zone.

President Ernesto de la Guardia Jr. endorsed the rally but urged the participants to refrain from violence such as occurred Nov. 3 when nationalist crowds tried to plant the Panamanian flag in the zone. About 80 demonstrators were hurt in clashes with Canal Zone police and U.S. troops.

Parade Dwindles

A motorcade carrying more than 150 demonstrators set out from the interior of Panama for the capital but the parade dwindled overnight from 30 autos to 14. The cars were stopped briefly at one point and searched by Panamanian authorities, apparently for weapons. The route to the capital crosses the zone.

The United States recognizes Panama's nominal sovereignty over the zone but exercises all the rights of sovereignty under the treaty signed between the two countries in 1903. Panama receives a yearly rental from the United States of $1,900,000.

Panama wants the treaty revised to meet what it considers present day conditions.

$25,000 bond was ordered forfeited by the court.

However bondsmen are permitted to serve a "bail piece" calling for return of the defendant to the jurisdiction of the court in order to prevent loss of the bond and are permitted to serve the "bail piece" anywhere, because usually those who skip bail are elsewhere than in the jurisdiction of the court in which bail is set. The bondsmen are also permitted to have police assistance.

Sergeant Smith, Rebert, Deputy Sheriff Ira W. Keach and another state trooper earlier this week visited Campbell's home in Boring in an attempt to serve the bail piece. After they had visited the home, a daughter of Campbell, Mrs. Jane Campbell Dettler, and another woman, unidentified, brought the trespassing charges against Sergeant Smith before Reisterstown Magistrate Philip Knatz.

AMBASSADOR'S SON RETURNS TO HOMELAND

WASHINGTON (AP) — David Patrick Hearne, son of the Irish ambassador, has left America. He had gotten into a series of scrapes with the law here, climaxed when his car struck and killed a woman pedestrian.

The Irish Embassy said Friday Hearne, 21, left for Dublin by plane Wednesday night. He will continue his education in Ireland.

The son of Ambassador John J. Hearne had been a student at American University for the past year. He had lived here with his father for about nine years.

Killed Negro Servant
On Nov 11 his car killed Jossie Hamlin, 54, a Negro domestic servant, as she was crossing a street. He claimed diplomatic immunity and an inquest into the death was halted.

The case roused considerable clamor, especially since young Hearne had had four encounters with police in the past few months. These involved several incidents of loud and boisterous conduct.

The ambassador had previously announced that his son would leave the country as a result of the uproar.

featuring a scoop neckline, fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. She wore a matching pillbox hat with a nose veil and carried a nosegay of blue and white carnations. Mrs. John Snyder, Chambersburg, sister of the groom, was the bridesmaid. Her gown, hat and flowers were identical to the maid of honor, Miss Trudy Sanders, Fairfield, sister of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a floor-length gown in white silk organza over romance blue taffeta featuring puffed sleeves, a blue cummerbund, large bow and hooped skirt. She carried a basket of blue and white carnations.

John Snyder, Chambersburg, brother-in-law of the groom, was the best man. Robert George, Fairfield, and Dennis Hardman, Waynesboro, were the ushers.

The mother of the bride wore a teal blue knit suit with brown accessories and a white carnation corsage. The groom's mother chose a light blue wool dress with black accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

Reception Is Held
A reception for a few relatives and close friends was held at the bride's home. The couple then left for a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination. For traveling the bride chose a beige knit dress with brown accessories and a white rosebud corsage. On their return they will reside at Fairfield R. 1 until January 1.

The bride is a graduate of Fairfield High School with the class of 1954 and is employed by the United Telephone Co., Fairfield.

The groom is a graduate of Fairfield High School with the class of 1955 and served four years with the U. S. Air Force. He is employed in Richmond, Va.

Out-of-town guests were from New York, Virginia, Hagerstown, Baltimore, Bethesda, Mercersburg and Chambersburg.

"Zion's Evangelical Lutheran Church was consecrated to the service of the Triune God November 10, 1855. Services on the Friday evening previous by the pastor. Consecration sermon, dedicatory service Saturday morning at one-half past 10 o'clock, a.m. Sermon by Rev. H. L. Baugher, D.D., after which the regular consecration service was read by the pastor, Rev. H. Bishop."

So reads one of the initial entries in the archives of Zion's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Fairfield, which on Sunday will conclude an observance of its 105th anniversary.

During the last two Sundays special services have been conducted accentuating the past and present of the church. The concluding service, Sunday, will keynote its future.

Historic Items Displayed

Understoring the rich history of Zion Church is a historical display, the items of which range from the consecration of the church to recent times.

Some weeks ago the Rev. Otto Kroeger, present pastor of Zion Church, which has a confirmed membership of 372, issued a number of "pulpit pleas" to members of his congregation requesting pictures, publications, records, anecdotes, indeed, anything that would be representative of the church during its 105 years of growth. The response to the request produced an abundance of items and materials which, during the three-week anniversary observance, have occupied three alcoves in the parish house.

Among the many items is an early baptismal record. The first name recorded in the ledger is that of one "John Jacob Kugler, son of Michael and Susan Kugler." He was born, according to the information given, on August 7, 1849, and baptized April 28, 1853.

School Menus

GETTYSBURG ELEMENTARY

Monday: Franks on bun, pork and beans, apple crisp and milk.

Tuesday: Spaghetti, apple sauce, celery sticks, gingerbread and milk.

Wednesday: Pork and sauerkraut, mashed potatoes, peach and chocolate milk.

Thursday: Lunch meat sandwich, noodle soup, graham cracker lemon pie and milk.

Friday: Baked tuna pie, lettuce and egg salad, cinnamon bun and milk.

FAIRFIELD
Monday: Spaghetti and meat sauce, peanut butter crackers and peach.

Tuesday: Assorted sandwiches, peas, corn bread muffins and jello.

Wednesday: Baked ham, green beans, potato salad, plums.

Thursday: Chicken and noodles, cole slaw, celery and peanut butter, applesauce.

Friday: Salmon loaf, stewed tomatoes, fruit salad, doughnuts. Bread, butter and choice of white or chocolate milk will be served with each meal.

Nearly two thirds of Mexico's 32 million people are without electricity.

There are numerous pictures of the congregation throughout the years engaged in worship, recreation and happy pursuits. There are dozens of old scripture lessons, Sunday School materials and programs dating from 1883. Among the items is the steeple that stood at the summit of the church before its renovation in 1891. It appears that a bullet once passed through the steeple. The origin of the hole, however, remains a subject of local controversy.

Old Wedding Gown

Hanging in one corner is an old wedding gown. The gown was worn by Mrs. Minnie Musselman, a member of the congregation, when she was married at her present home on January 3, 1895.

On display is part of a communion set used by the church until 1906, a lamp which was "re-found" beneath the Sunday School not long ago, and has been restored. It is of tin and was fashioned by a local craftsman. However, its original use is a matter of debate among the old timers of the congregation. An early type of oil light reflector, used to brighten the sanctuary, may also be seen.

Was War Hospital

Following the morning worship and a special Sunday evening program, most of the items on display will be reclaimed by their owners. Rev. Kroeger suggested that all who wish to visit the display to do so before Monday.

The church's involvement in the Civil War is related in this, account from a current church publication. "In 1863 this church became a hospital for the wounded following a severe battle near Fairfield, in which about 1,000

Issue Calendar On Confederacy

As a salute to the imminent Civil War anniversary and, more specifically, to the Confederate states, the Berkshire Publishing Co. of Cambridge, Mass., has introduced the Confederate engagement calendar for 1960.

With a full-color cover, the calendar features 56 historic photographs, including prints and paintings of Civil War battle scenes and of southern cities during the war; Confederate shines, museums and monuments, and current pictures of battle sites in Dixie. The identifying captions describe a bit of the history of each scene illustrated.

Each weekly calendar page has room for recording of appointments, birthdays and anniversaries or for use as a diary. The calendar pages back each other so, if desired, they can be removed at the end of the year to leave a book of Confederate scenes.

Two of the scenes are from Gettysburg.

U. N. ASSEMBLY BUSINESS LAGS

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —Badly behind schedule, the General Assembly pressed today to wind up business by mid-December so delegates can get home for the Christmas holiday.

Diplomats have abandoned hope of ending the session by the Dec. 5 target set by Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld.

The main Political Committee still has to debate the thorny issues of Algeria and outer space before turning them over to the General Assembly for final action.

The Assembly itself is confronted with holding its annual debate on Hungary and trying to break the deadlock in the marathon contest between Communist Poland and U.S.-backed Turkey for a Security Council seat.

On Monday the 82-national Political Committee turns to Algeria with an opening speech by Tunisian Ambassador Mongi Slim.

The 29-nation Asian-African group is working on an Algerian resolution but does not expect to have it ready until the end of next week.

Glenn Guise Is President Of Exchange Club: The first meeting of the newly formed Exchange Club of Gettysburg was held Friday evening at Banker's Restaurant when Glenn Guise, former Gettysburg chief of police and now manager of the Adams County Motors, was elected as its first president.

Philip T. Beamer, Buford avenue chiropractor, was elected secretary and E. Donald Scott, farm implement dealer, was chosen as the treasurer.

The officers said the club will meet regularly on Tuesday evenings at Banker's.

The executive membership committee of the new organization includes President Guise, Secretary Barner, John J. Slentz and Donald Reel.

C. E. Council Of County Meets: A regular meeting of the Adams County Council of Christian Education was held Friday evening at the YWCA with R. R. Starnes, the president, presiding.

The report on the leadership training school revealed there were a total of 65 persons enrolled, 48 credit cards issued; seven different denominations representing 20 churches.

Six persons were nominated as follows as members-at-large for the board of directors: Three years, Ira Dummire, Gettysburg, and Mrs. O. D. Cible, Bendersville; two years, Harry T. Baker, Littlestown, and the Rev. Robert Knechel, Gettysburg; one year, Aaron Fetrow, York Springs, and the Rev. Samuel Clarke, New Oxford, R. D.

Small Game Season Best In Years: Deer Legal Today: Adams county hunters, who Saturday ended the best small game season on many years, today were after bigger game with the opening of the deer season.

Game Protector Leo Bushman in terms this "the best small game season in years" said, "There have been more reports this year of ring-necked pheasants killed in the county than ever before. I've never known so many hunters to get a pheasant. And on a spot check made a couple days ago by simple driving along country roads, 150 rabbits were seen."

Bushman praised the various sportsmen's organizations for their policy of stocking rabbits and pheasants and credited the large amount of small game to the stocking program as well as to the "excellent breeding season" this year.

Dr. C. H. Johnson Received Honor: Dr. C. Harold Johnson, pathologist at the Annie M. Warner hospital, has been signally honored by being elected a Fellow of the American College of Physicians by the latter's Board of Regents. He will be formally inducted at the Convocation of the annual session of the College April 19, 1960, at Boston, Mass.

Last March Doctor Johnson was elected a Diplomat of the American Board of Internal Medicine. During recent months he has had two articles on heart disease published in medical journals.

Today's Talk

GO THE ROUTE

Too many people start out in life with a brilliant future, apparently, before them, only to get discouraged and quit, or to lose interest and just float, but those who go the route when once started are the leaders in life. Of course it takes courage and the right kind of persistence, and there are failures all along the way, but if you go the right sort of success that pays big dividends throughout life.

E. W. Howe, the noted Kansas editor, was an unusual character. He owned and conducted a news paper in a small city in Kansas, and at one time wrote a small paper which he called "Ed Howe's Weekly" — a sheet of comments that was quoted widely. He charged but 25 cents a year for it and it was worth that twice again, and more. I was always stimulated by Howe's bright sayings and his unusual comments on life in general. His philosophy was well worth taking as a guide. One of his famous sayings was "Success is easier than failure." I believe he wrote a small book on this subject.

In Howe's early life he wrote a book that is very rare now called "The Story of a Country Town." It was praised by prominent critics and writers who gave it wide publicity. He wrote many other interesting and formative books. He went the route of a country newspaper man, and was justly praised by competent judges of literature.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Moving Dramas"

WHAT THE RICH MAN SAYS

Go ask of any millionaire

What joy his money brings;

Ask him to tell if anywhere

The robin sweeter sings

Because he has a store of gold,

Or bluer are his skies;

Ask him to tell, now growing old,

Wherein contentment lies.

He will not bid you strive for wealth

Nor all that wealth attends;

He'll tell you first to keep your health,

And next to keep your friends.

He'll say contentment's not in gold

Nor in the power to buy,

For anything that's bought and sold

Can never satisfy.

He'll tell you that much money brings

With it the curse of lust,

The heartache and the sorrows

Of cynical distrust;

He'll say, in spite of all it does,

He never was so glad

As when men smiled for what he was,

Instead of what he had.

EX-UN OFFICIAL IS FOUND DEAD

NEW YORK (AP)—Povl Bang-Jensen, 50, deposed United Nations official who had been missing since Monday, was found dead Thursday in a Queens park. Police called it "an obvious case of suicide."

The body of Bang-Jensen, dismissed from the U.N. in a controversy over releasing the names of Hungarian refugees, was found by a man walking his dog along the bridge path of Alley Pond Park.

A 25-caliber revolver was in his right hand. He died of a bullet wound in the right side of his head. Police said a note in his possession was identified by handwriting experts as that of the Danish national.

The note, addressed to his American-born wife Helen, begged her forgiveness and suggested funeral arrangements.

Authorities said the body had been in the wooded area more than 24 hours. This left about 48 hours of Bang-Jensen's disappearance unaccounted for. He was not seen alive after leaving his home Monday at Lake Success on Long Island—about two miles from where he was found.

A Bit Of History About Early Settlers

By B. F. M. MacPHERSON

The Dicks Family Of Round Hill

The notes on the Dicks family, some of whom are buried in the old Round Hill Presbyterian Graveyard, are continued at this time. There is some question as to whether or not the "Dick" family of the new nonexistent village of McKesson's Town, in this county, is one and the same as the "Dicks" clan, this is a debatable question — although some genealogists insist they are identical. It is quite possible that one branch, of a later date, added the "s" as a distinguishing feature for the earliest spelling of the name does not include this last. Notwithstanding all family arguments there are a number of reasons for believing that some degree of relationship existed between the two — for the same given names were used in both families and both were members of the Presbyterian Church. Included in a list of early settlers in what is now Adams County only the surname "Dick" is given — although one name is that of "Job Dick." So it will become assumed that the two are one and data on both will be included in this article.

The following items were taken from the files of the "Adams Centinel" under the dates given, as follows: —

2. Wednesday, June 19, 1816 —

Soldier Of Revolution

"Died, Thursday evening, June 13, 1816, James Dick, brother of Thomas Dick, McKesson's Town, this county, aged about 70 years. Mr. Dick was a Soldier of the Revolution."

Note: — The exact burial of James Dick, soldier of the American Revolution, is not known but it is possible that he is buried in Lower Marsh Creek Cemetery in an unmarked grave. James was evidently a family name for Job Dicks and his wife, Rebecca Weakley, had a son bearing this name, who is buried in the Round Hill Graveyard.

3. Wednesday, December 29, 1819 —

"Died, Saturday, December 25, 1919, at his seat near Millerstown (now Fairfield), this county, Thomas Dick, aged about 75 years. He was a soldier of the Revolution, and when he had seen peace and independence given to his country, he settled himself quietly down to the humble employments of peaceful life and by industry and economy made himself independent — and died, loved by his friends and relatives, and respected by all who knew him."

Note: — A brother of James Dick, soldier of the American Revolution, whose obituary is given above. Like his brother the burial place of Thomas Dick is unknown but it is very possible that he, too, is buried in the Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian Graveyard — for the family were members of the Presbyterian Church and lived in that general neighborhood.

4. Wednesday, January 9, 1822 —

Burial Place Unknown

"Died, Sunday evening, January 6, 1822, Mrs. Mary Dick, widow and relict of Thomas Dick, deceased, of McKesson's Town, this county."

Note: — The wife of Thomas Dick, soldier of the American Revolution, who died December 25, 1819 — some three years before his wife. The burial place of Mary Dick is not known.

5. Monday, September 7, 1835 —

"Married, August 27, 1835, by the Rev. J. Ruthrauff — Thomas Dicks, of Reading Township, this county, to Miss Lydia Ann Haines, of Hamilton Township, this county."

Note: — This is the tie-up, mentioned by a descendent between the Dicks and Haines (or Hanes) families. Undoubtedly Thomas Dicks was a son of Job and Martha (Weakley) Dicks, whose graves are in the Round Hill Presbyterian Churchyard. Haines (or Hanes) Dicks, who told the story of Samuel Dodge, "the strong man," was probably a son of Thomas and Lydia Ann (Haines) Dicks.

Buried At Round Hill

There are quite a few members of the Hanes (or Haines) family buried at Round Hill. The inscriptions from the markers at their graves are as follows: —

1. "Sacred to the memory of/ Conrad Hanes/ Born July 15, 1760/ Died July 29, 1838."

Note: — Conrad Hanes (or Haines) died intestate (without a will) and his estate was administered by the Orphan's Court of this county. In the records of that office his heirs are given as follows: — "Heirs and legal representatives of Conrad Hanes, of Reading Township, this county, deceased, viz: — Jacob Hanes, Sarah Hanes intermarried with John Bream, John Hanes, Mary Hanes intermarried with David March, Abraham Hanes, Leah Hanes, and Samuel Hanes."

2. "In memory of/ Barbara Hanes/ Born November 22, 1769/ Died February 19, 1839."

Notes: — Probably the wife of Conrad Hanes for their graves are side by side and the dates of birth and death point to this relationship.

3. "In memory of/ Elizabeth/ wife of/ Jacob Hanes/ Born April 20, 1794/ Died December 10, 1858."

Note: — Jacob Hanes was the eldest son of Conrad and Barbara Hanes. The maiden name of Elizabeth Hanes is not known — nor the date of her marriage to Jacob Hanes.

4. "Jacob Hanes/ December 9, 1881/ Aged 91 years, 1 month/ and 3 days."

Note: — Star and Senteinel, Wednesday, January 18, 1882 — "Died, December 9, 1881, at Hampton, this county — Jacob Hanes aged 91 years, 1 month, and 8 days."

Jacob Hanes was the eldest son of Conrad and Barbara Hanes and petitioned the court, after his father's death, for the partitioning of his father's estate.

5. "In memory of/ Barbara Hanes/ Died August 4, 1893/ Aged 67 years, 8 months/ and 2 days."

Note: — Probably a daughter of Jacob Hanes, son of Conrad, and his wife, Elizabeth, — the child being named for her grandmother, Barbara, the wife of Conrad Hanes.

6. "In memory of/ Emeline Hanes/ Died May 4, 1904/ Aged 75 years, 11 months/ and 7 days."

Note: — Emeline Hanes was a daughter of Jacob and Elizabeth Hanes. She apparently died unmarried.

7. "In memory of/ Lovina Hanes/ Died February 16, 1912/ Aged 79 years, 11 months/ and 29 days."

Note: — Lovina Hanes was another daughter of Jacob and Elizabeth Hanes. In company with her sisters, Emeline and Barbara Hanes, she (Lovina) died unmarried.

The following data on the Hanes (or Haines) family was taken from the "Adams Centinel" (later the "Star and Senteinel") under the dates given —

1. Tuesday, November 27, 1832 — Married, Thursday, November 22, 1832, by the Rev. L. L. Hirsch — Henry Hanes, of Huntington Township, this county, to Miss Margaret Sarbaugh, of Menallen Township, this county."

Note: — The exact place of Henry Hanes on the family tree of the Hanes family of Round Hill is not known — at this time. Undoubtedly, however, he was related to them.

2. Monday, July 2, 1838 — "Married, June 18, 1838, by

CITIZENS TO ASSIST NBC REVIEW TV

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Broadcasting Co. has disclosed plans to establish a committee of five prominent citizens to review NBC television policies and standards.

NBC said Thursday it expects to announce the names of the advisory committee members next week.

American Broadcasting Co. and Columbia Broadcasting System said they would not adopt such a plan.

Advertising executive Sigurd S. Larmon, who had suggested a citizens committee to review television standards, conceded that the plan appeared doomed because of its rejection by ABC and CBS. Larmon, chairman of the Young & Rubicam, Inc., advertising agency, said his plan could not function without unanimous industry approval.

Larmon's proposal called for broadcasters, sponsors and advertising agencies to participate.

WILL QUESTION DISC JOCKEY

NEW YORK (AP)—Disc jockey Alan Freed says he will comply with a subpoena to appear Monday before a Manhattan grand jury investigating payola in television and radio.

Freed was served with the subpoena Wednesday night. Det poena Wednesday night. Detective searched for hours after he failed to show up at Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan's office.

Asked by newsmen why he had not appeared at Hogan's office, as requested, Freed replied: "I will not volunteer for anybody. My grandmother once told me, 'Never volunteer for anything.'"

Freed, who has lost both his television and radio outlets here, has denied several times that he ever took payola — undercover payments to plug tunes on the air.

He has declined to tell newsmen what was discussed when he was questioned by representatives of a Senate subcommittee investigating payola.

JUDY RECOVERING

NEW YORK (AP)—Singer Judy Garland, recovering from a liver ailment, is reported "coming along well" at Doctors Hospital.

A hospital spokesman said Thursday Miss Garland probably would remain in the hospital another two weeks. Miss Garland, 37, was admitted Nov. 19.

Note: — Emeline was a family name in the Hanes clan so undoubtedly Emeline (Hanes) Natches was related to the Round Hill branch — but to just what degree is not known.

This concludes, for the time being at least, the notes on the Hanes family.

Next week in this column, the historical and genealogical study of the Round Hill Presbyterian Graveyard will be continued, with data on the Duffield, Ferree, and Holtzinger families.

Let's Look At The Record

PLYMOUTH ROCK

New England's Shrine Has Dubious History But It May Have Thanksgiving Significance

By JIM DAN HILL, Ph.D.

President, Wisconsin State College, Superior

IT'S THANKSGIVING WEEK

again and beaming grade school children are happily making silhouette cut-outs of turkeys, pumpkins and Pilgrims.

These last are, of course, attired in a la Myles Standish, Priscilla Mullens and John Alden, with an occasional arrow through a top hat to suggest the pesky redskins lurking off stage.

Quite often one of the women is gingerly stepping from a boat's prow onto a bulky, rough object. In every child's imagination it is Plymouth Rock.

IN NEW ENGLAND, "The Rock" ranks with but slightly junior to the Biblical Rock of Ages. Since the exact location of the latter is vague and distant at best, the New Englanders rhapsodize their more local and tangible Plymouth Rock.

This reviewer, having been reared in the Texas tradition that there exists no American historical shrine more hallowed than the Alamo, sought to balance his historical books by a journey to Plymouth Rock last summer.

In about two hours by auto from our Boston hotel we found the Rock. It proved to be a lonely, smallish and unpretentious boulder, half silted over by the beach sands of Plymouth Bay.

It was surrounded by empty pop bottles and punctured beer cans, and soiled from beach habits and nearby hot dog stands.

THE ROCK, along with refuse, was nobly canopied by an imposing, granite, arched portico. Its many inscriptions left one wondering if it was intended to honor the Rock or the organization that erected the monument.

Our party took the return road with the silence of disappointment. Someone then cheerfully suggested that perhaps the Pilgrims did not first land on that rock after all.

THE RECORD SHOWS that the good ship Mayflower sighted Cape Cod November 19, 1620. She first anchored in what is now Provincetown Harbor, just inside the Cape. Most of the women were promptly put on the beach at a fresh water point to get caught up with their laundry responsibilities.

Meanwhile, Myles Standish and sixteen volunteers (probably America's first National Guardsmen) did a bit of exploring. They flushed one running Indian and a dog; found some buried corn, which they annexed to their own welfare. After two night ashore they rejoined the ladies aboard the ship.

This was the first of three landings before the Fathers decided to homestead New Plymouth five weeks after sighting land. The Mayflower anchored in Plymouth harbor, December 26, for final discharge of passengers and cargo. That the Rock was nature's pier for the landing of all hands and the ship's cook is quite dubious history.

GOING TO PACIFIC

NEW YORK (AP)—The Rev. Dr. Edwin T. Dahlberg of St. Louis, Mo., president of the National Council of Churches, will spend the Christmas season with the armed services in the Pacific.

After Christmas, Dr. Dahlberg will visit refugee centers in Asia and the Middle East in a month-long trip by air which will take him around the world.

Dr. Dahlberg will spend Christmas in Okinawa and will preach at a special service which will be broadcast via the armed forces network.

Bullet Cagers Open With Three Games Next Week; Temple Here December 5

Coach Bob Hulton and his Gettysburg College Bullets will inaugurate a 26-game basketball schedule next week when they face Albright, Rider College and Temple. The Bullets will travel to Reading for the season's opener against the Lions of Albright on Wednesday. Gettysburg and Albright have met 55 times since 1910 with the Bullets capturing 36 wins and dropping 19. On Thursday the Battlefields will journey to York for an engagement with Rider College in the second half of a twin-bill. The game will be played at Hannah Penn Junior High with game time slated for 9 p.m. The Bullets will meet their first Middle Atlantic Conference opponent on Saturday when they face the Temple University Owls in the first home game of the season.

Temple and Gettysburg have squared-off 16 times since 1918 with Temple racking up 12 of the 16 wins. The Bullets have dropped their last nine outings against the Owls and their last victory came in 1930 when the Bullets won 28-24.

Rely On Sophs
As far as the outcome of the season goes, Coach Hulton said, "We're rebuilding with a young fast team. We will have to rely heavily on sophomores and returning juniors without much game experience. The sophomore crop, despite lack of size, is the best in recent years. Lack of size will be our largest problem."

"We have excellent speed and shooting ability from sophomores Ron Warner and Bob Parker who averaged 28 and 22 points, respectively, on last year's freshman team which recorded an 18-3 record."

During the past two weeks Hulton has been moulding his squad, making changes here and there, and has now given indication as to the starting team. The guards will be composed of Ron Warner, York, 5-10, 710 pounds, and Bob Parker, Yeading, 6-0, 155 pounds; forwards, Bruce Simpson, Sunbury, 6-3, 205 pounds, and Bill Hemming, Wayne, 6-3, 180 pounds; center, Bill Fitzkee, Mt. Wolf, 6-3, 200 pounds.

Front Replacements
The front line replacements will consist of: Forwards, John Warner, York, 5-11, 185, and George Burnett, Salisbury, Md., 6-3, 180; center, John Fleming, Havertown, 6-5, 185, and guard George Roberts, Plymouth, 5-9, 150.

Rounding out the remainder of the squad, Hulton will have forwards John Bauer, Harrisburg, 6-3, 185, and Jack Perrine, Jamesburg, N. J., 6-0, 180; guards, John Hartwell, Brockton, Mass., 6-2, 180, and Ken Kamis, Harrisburg, 5-10, 165.

The Bullets have only one returning letterman, John Warner, senior. Sophomores make up the main portion of the squad, three of whom will start. Last year the Gettysburg cagers recorded a 13-13 slate and will be out to improve upon that record.

San Francisco CAGE COACH TO REST FOR YEAR
By HARRY JUPITER
SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—What happens when a basketball coach decides he's not doing as well as he should? When he finds himself becoming irritable and sleepless?

Phil Woolpert, at 43 one of the nation's most successful coaches, decided to take a one-year leave of absence from the University of San Francisco to "stand back and take a good healthy look at the whole situation."

The reason: "Tension, pure and simple. Here we are, three days before the season even begins and I can't sleep. I talked to the people at USF and to my doctor Wednesday. The doctor said I should get away from the whole thing for a year."

2 Championships
Woolpert's announcement came late Friday.
The young defensive strategist produced two national championship teams during his nine years as head coach at USF. At one stretch, from Dec. 15, 1934, to Dec. 17, 1936, Woolpert's green-jerseyed Dons won 60 straight games — the intercollegiate record.

Woolpert, a perfectionist, has been having trouble letting off steam. "Up to five years ago," he said, "I would rant and rave on the bench. Then our league, the West Coast Athletic Conference, put in a rule that the coaches should behave themselves on the bench."

"In most ways it's a good rule. In some ways it isn't. At least we used to let off what was boiling up inside."

Ross Giudice, Woolpert's assistant, a former freshman coach and one-time USF star, took over as head coach. The Dons open their season against Stanford Tuesday night.

CASTRO USING RELIGION FOR NEW ASSAULTS
By ROBERT BERRELLEZ
HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro accused his enemies of trying to place the Roman Catholic Church against his revolutionary regime.

The fiery Prime Minister raised the religious theme in a speech to students on the eve of a festival opening today honoring Cuba's patron saint, Our Lady of Charity.

He charged privileged groups affected by the government's land distribution program with attempting to use the forthcoming National Catholic Congress against his revolutionary regime.

"It's lamentable," he shouted. "We have to combat the maneuvers of landowners and other unscrupulous elements who cannot comprehend the revolutionary preachings of Christ."

Pilgrims Crowd Capital
Castro charged these elements were attempting to "harm the traditional religious sentiment of devotion of our noble people for Our Lady of Charity."

Thousands of Catholic pilgrims are converging on the capital for the festival which is highlighted by the presence of a wooden image of the patron saint which church historians say was found more than 300 years ago by three fishermen off Cuba's northeast coast.

Castro appeared Friday night at a ceremony to pay tribute to Cuban students executed by the Spaniards in 1872 for rebelling. He looked more relaxed than he has for weeks.

TOKYO (AP) — Thousands of chanting, shouting Japanese surged through Tokyo streets Friday and invaded the grounds of the Parliament building, demanding an end to military ties with the United States.

PICK STEELERS OVER EAGLES

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pittsburgh Steelers' Bobby Layne and the Philadelphia Eagles' Norm Van Brocklin match quarterbacking talents Sunday in a National Football League contest at Forbes Field.

Both veterans passers have brought their teams along fast after slow starts.

The Steelers, riding high with successive victories over the powerful New York Giants and Cleveland Browns, are four-point favorites.

Philadelphia also has won its last two outings.

The Eagles beat the Steelers 28-24 earlier this season, but there have been several lineup changes for both teams since that contest.

Philadelphia is tied with Cleveland for second place in the Eastern Division with a 6-3 record. Fourth-place Pittsburgh, with a 4-4-1 mark, is all but mathematically eliminated. New York leads the conference with 7-2.

About 28,000 are expected for the game.

FAVOR BROWNS OVER '49ERS IN SUNDAY'S TILT

By JIM KENSIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

Slim John Brodie was just 13 years old when a couple of quarterbackbacks named Otto Graham and Frankie Albert played in the final game of the old All-America Conference.

Otto's Cleveland Browns beat Frankie's San Francisco 49ers 21-7 on Dec. 11, 1949, and both came into the National Football League the following season.

Now, Otto and Frankie have retired but nothing else has changed much. The Browns are solid 10-point favorites to whip the 49ers Sunday in the feature of a five-game NFL card.

It's sub Brodie's job to upset the odds and keep the sagging 49ers atop the Western Conference. The 49ers, who hold only three victories in 13 games with Cleveland, are tied with defending NFL Champion Baltimore Colts for first in the West.

Browns Need Victory
The Browns, who finished ahead of runner-up San Francisco in all four years of the All-America's existence, need the victory to keep within range of the New York Giants in the Eastern Conference. The Browns have won seven of nine Eastern titles since joining the NFL. The Giants won '56 and last year and their current 7-2 record is a game better than the Browns.

The Giants are favored to keep the lead by 10 points over the Washington Redskins (3-6) at New York. The Colts rate the same edge over the Los Angeles Rams (2-7) at Baltimore.

Eagles Vs. Steelers
Longshot Eastern contender Philadelphia runs into the latest-starting Steelers at Pittsburgh, and the Eagles are four-point underdogs. Although the Eagles are tied with the Browns at 6-3 in the East, their title chances are rated slim because they get no more cracks at front-running New York.

The Chicago Bears (5-4) are only a game off the Western lead but they play neither the Colts nor the 49ers the rest of the way. The Bears meet the Chicago Cardinals (2-7) at Soldier Field and are likely seven-point winners.

Green Bay (5-5) beat Detroit (2-7-1) on Thanksgiving 24-17 and both are idle until next weekend.

Save Boy Trapped On A Rocky Ledge
DEBEQUE, Colo. (AP) — National Park Service rangers early today rescued James Orange, 17, who became trapped on a rocky ledge while hunting deer.

Orange was reported in good condition and unharmed by his seven-hour exposure to freezing temperatures while awaiting rescue.

He was on a deer hunting trip with his father, a master sergeant from Ft. Carson near Colorado Springs, Colo., when he slipped and skidded down an embankment onto the ledge. From the ledge it is a sheer drop of 300 feet to level ground.

Rangers from the Colorado National Monument near Grand Junction, west of here, lowered ropes to reach Orange.

USMC Offers New Enlistment Policy
A Marine Corps spokesman said today that area recruiting stations will offer enlistments under the POOL program following the holiday season.

This plan permits young men and women to enlist and then be extended a period of grace of 120 days before reporting for training. Under the program participants are draft exempt.

COMMITTED TO HOSPITAL

SNOW COVERS WEST HALF OF PENNSYLVANIA

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Light to heavy snow blanketed most of western Pennsylvania. Temperatures hovered around the freezing mark. Roads were slippery and dangerous.

The Weather Bureau predicted snow flurries over most of the state by late today and tonight.

Erie, Crawford, Warren and Venango counties in the northwest got from five to eight inches of snow overnight.

The snow continued to fall lightly throughout the morning.

Roads Are Slippery
Jefferson and McKean counties had from four to six inches of new snow. In Pittsburgh, the snowfall accumulated to about two inches before changing to steady snow flurries.

In southwestern Pennsylvania, there was a light fall.

The Pittsburgh Motor club reported that all roads in western Pennsylvania were slippery. Cinder and plowing crews were out throughout the area.

By contrast in the southeastern part of the state it rained most of the night and temperatures were in the low 60s. It rained also in central Pennsylvania, but the temperatures were lower.

BEATS FORMER WIFE TO DEATH

BISMARCK, N.D. (AP)—A husky construction worker Friday night admitted the fatal beating of his former wife, a nurse at the Glasgow, Mont., Air Force Base, early on Thanksgiving Day.

Police Capt. Frank Wenzel said Harold Brown, 33, claimed he used only his fists in the attack on Verna Gae Brown, 31, in her apartment about 2 a.m. Thursday. He said he did not know the wife who divorced him a month ago was dead.

Montana officers said Brown was charged with first-degree murder.

Mrs. Brown's body was discovered Friday morning by fellow workers who called to take her to her job.

Wenzel said Brown was found in downtown Bismarck and surrendered without resistance. He said Brown signed a statement and waived extradition.

Randy Harley, Brown's stepson who lived with the victim, was turned over to his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ole Pearson, Roulette, N. D.

Former Missionary Seeks U.S. Land Speed Record

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—A local garage operator has declared himself a surprise entrant in the race to set a new American land speed record.

Athol Graham, a 35-year-old former Mormon missionary, said Friday he'll take his homemade, 3,000-horsepower streamlined racer onto western Utah's salt flats Sunday to launch his attack on the mark.

"America's land speed record was set last fall by Mickey Thompson, El Monte, Calif., who averaged 345.33 miles an hour in two runs over the Utah flats. Two runs are required to establish a speed mark."

About that time, Graham got his racer up to about 280 m.p.h. but had to call off the test when his cockpit canopy blew off and a minor cooling problem developed.

Graham — like Thompson — hopes someday to break the absolute land speed record set in 1947 by the late John Cobb of England. Cobb averaged 394.2 m.p.h. in his two runs over the salt flats — topping the magic 400 m.p.h. barrier in one of the runs.

Takes Greyhound Bus On Short Trip
TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — "I just sat down behind the wheel, started it and took off."

That, explained Robert F. Shields, 27, Bluefield, Va., Friday was how he took a Greyhound bus from the Tucson depot.

Shields said he was in Tucson en route to California and saw the bus gassed up and ready to go. So he took it.

"I must have driven four or five miles," he said. "It was fine. But the Tucson streets threw me, I got lost."

"Then I saw the police in the rear view mirror. I knew it was all over. I could have led them on a chase. But I didn't want to hurt any people or that nice bus. So I pulled over."

Shields was booked on suspicion of grand theft.

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — More linemen have been named to the Yankee team for the Blue-Gray football game to be played here Dec. 26.

The addition of Earl Kohlhaas, 222-pound center — linebacker, and Andrew Stynchula, 227-pound tackle, both of Penn State, was announced Friday.

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII today issued an encyclical letter aimed at giving new impetus to the worldwide mission activities of the Roman Catholic Church.

The 78-year-old supreme ruler of the church, recalling his own past work in the mission field, outlined achievements that have been accomplished and problems that are still faced.

Mickey Cohen's Gal Missing With Mate
LOS ANGELES (AP) — The whereabouts of stripteaseer Candy Barr and her new husband, Jack Sahakian, are a mystery.

But her ex-beau, Mickey Cohen, thinks he knows the answer.

"Sure, I do," the ex-gambler said Friday. "She's in Los Angeles talking to the Internal Revenue people about me. But I've got nothing to hide. I don't owe anything and I don't owe anything."

Federal authorities denied any knowledge of her whereabouts.

Candy reportedly had been heading for Texas, where she faces a 15-year jail term for a marijuana possession conviction in Dallas.

TO SELECT BOWL TEAM TONIGHT

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Penn State's opponent in the first annual Liberty Bowl football game will be selected tonight, says George Kerrington.

Kerrington, vice president of the December 19 bowl game at Philadelphia Stadium, said so Friday while visiting Southern Methodist University.

He told SMU officials a victory or a good showing in the team's Southwest Conference finale with Texas Christian today would keep it among top contenders for a berth.

"Just a passing duel between SMU's Don Meredith and Penn State's Richie Lucas would be a great attraction," he said.

The other top contenders are Georgia, Georgia Tech and Clemson. Georgia and Georgia Tech play today.

GETS 3 YEARS FOR BOMBING SCHOOLHOUSE
LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—A segregationist leader charged with bombing the Little Rock School Board office was convicted early today and his punishment set at three years in prison and a $500 fine.

E. A. Lauderdale, a stocky, 48-year-old lumber dealer—named by others charged in the case as ringleader of a bomb plot—stood grim-faced as the verdict was read. Then he sat down and nonchalantly leaned back in his chair as the court room crowd of about 200 remained silent.

Deliberate 90 Minutes
In the crowd were several prominent segregationists who earlier had heard Lauderdale's attorney picture him as "the symbol and representative of those who believe in segregation."

The Circuit Court jury of nine men and three women deliberated an hour and a half.

Besides the school board, the business office of Mayor Werner Knopp and a station wagon at the home of Fire Chief Gann Nailey were dynamited. The blasts occurred within minutes of each other shortly before midnight on Labor Day.

Judge William J. Kirby allowed Lauderdale's attorneys 30 days in which to seek a new trial, and the defendant remained free in $50,000 bond.

Some astronomers believe that the moon may be covered with dust up to two-thirds of a mile in depth.

On The House

By ANDY LANG
The Associated Press

If you have ever used hardboard, you know it as a tough material with one smooth, brownish-colored surface and one rough (usually, not-meant-to-be-seen) surface. Inexpensive, durable and easy to paint, it has become one of the most popular work-horse wallboards in recent years.

But somehow when you think of hardboard, you do not think of it as an ultra-decorative material. Yet beautiful interiors can be created with one of the newer varieties of this product, plastic-finished hardboard. As the name makes clear, it is hardboard covered with plastic. This plastic comes in many designs, the warmest being those which simulate wood-grained finishes.

lowed in all joints for expansion. A gauge of cardboard can be used for this spacing between planks.

It is not advisable to install plastic-finished wall paneling in damp areas, such as bathrooms. But they can be put up in high humidity locations if the planks are treated first. This is done by wetting the backs of the planks thoroughly with water. They should then be stacked back-to-back on flat surface for 24 hours prior to use.

Here's The Answer

QUESTION: We plan on adding a porch over a concrete patio, using the rear wall of the house for the back of the porch. How should the rear plate be attached to the house, which is made of wood?

ANSWER: The rear plate, which will support the rafters of the new roof, must be securely attached to the house studs. This can be done with large, strong nails or, even better, with lag screws. If lag screws are used, place large washers under their heads.

QUESTION: We recently bought a marble-topped coffee table. A neighbor tells us that stains sometimes cannot be removed from marble. If this is so, can you tell us whether there is any sealer we can put on the marble to prevent staining?

ANSWER: While most stains can be removed from marble with a commercial strain remover, there are some (such as lemon juice) that can mar it permanently. Ask your hardware or paint dealer for a sealer made especially for marble. It is not stocked everywhere, but the dealer should be able to get it for you if he does not have it. Meanwhile, you can avoid even the possibility of staining the marble by wiping up any liquid the moment it is spilled.

The Weeders Guide

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Newsfeatures Writer

CHAPPAQUA, N. Y. — Generalities are always dangerous, but I maintain that all amateur gardeners are gadget lovers and most of them are unfrazzled collectors of a wide range of implements, nostrums and gheewacks which are largely used to render the family garage uninhabitable by an automobile.

Every beginner's garden book devotes a page or two to describing the essential tools of gardening: hoe, rake, digging device, hoe, hand cultivator, spray or dust equipment and such.

Every gardener instantly acquires these aids — and then goes to acquiring as widely as his pocketbook permits. And pocketbooks permit quite a lot over the years. I find, for instance, that in the cultivator class alone I own some 25 different implements designed for weed control, ranging in size from a small hand tool called a crabjack through assorted hoes to a large thing called a wheel cultivator which I've never used but picked up for $5 at a church bazaar sale.

In the grass-cutting class I have a power mower, a hand mower, a hand edger plus a sickle, a grass whip and long handled and short handled grass shears. There are long handled and short handled shovels, spades and a spading fork — plus a number of small digging tools.

Necessary Equipment
I have grafting equipment, sticks of flats, a huge collection of (used) flower pots, including chipped and broken ones which are saved to smash and be used as potshards for drainage at the bottom of perfect ones, stakes ranging in size from six footers to few inches, assorted string and wire twists, plus a wide range of fertilizers and soil conditioners. And a large, large number of insecticides, herbicides, tree wound paint and the like.

Several years ago I estimated that, counting my investment of equipment, it cost me roughly $1.50 to grow a bunch of radishes in the backyard garden. I suspect that today the cost has increased considerably but I say also that I don't regret a penny of the cost.

"Battle" Aids
A wide collection of spraying and dusting tools, for instance, is fairly expensive, but often pays off in terms of saving the gardener's strength, chemical materials and time. In the season-long battle against aphids and other sucking pests, for instance, I still find my trombone sprayer and a pail the handiest and least expensive method of attack. On the other hand, every time I spot a special pest — red spider on the golden glow, for example — I grab my malathion bomb and spray the infected area selectively. A spreader — for fertilizer, lime, even grass seed — pays off quickly in terms of economy because you can adjust it to drop the proper amount and you can get through the job quicker.

Bombs are among the great boons to modern gardening. Just about everything liquid is now available in them. The other day I sprayed my rusty wheelbarrow with a rust-detering primer coat, and followed later with a spray of paint — all without dirtying my hands and in a few minutes. Such short cuts are worth the extra money they cost.

iron be given a coat of black paint or clear varnish?

ANSWER: Not if you are looking for the dullest finish usually associated with wrought iron. But if a glossy black finish is desired — perhaps to match other furniture in the same room — then a metal paint can be used effectively.

Prepare For New Space Try After Moon Shot's Failure

By HOWARD BENEDICT
CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The United States pushed ahead with plans for another stab at space today while still seeking the reason for the failure of its biggest moon rocket.

In about two weeks an attempt will be made to propel a payload toward the vicinity of the planet Venus and into orbit about the sun. The launching vehicle will be a Thor-Able rocket.

The nation's latest space effort ended in disappointment Thanksgiving Day when a mammoth Atlas-Able rocket fizzled shortly after it was fired in an attempt to put the first satellite into orbit around the moon.

Second Stage Failed
The Atlas-Able, 10 stories high and the most powerful rocket ever assembled by this country, was on its maiden flight. It crashed hundreds of miles out in the Atlantic Ocean after its second stage failed to ignite.

Scientists are studying telemetry data and launch movies to learn the cause. Focal point of the investigation was a mysterious piece of material that fell from the rocket about 30 seconds after launch. The chunk, which appeared to be on fire, spiraled slowly into the ocean a few miles off shore.

Officials theorized it was part of a protective fiberglass fairing that covered the third stage and the 372-pound satellite. The fairing was split in two and blown away when the rocket was outside the earth's dense atmosphere.

Reds Have Wide Lead
It is believed the fairing may have broken prematurely, exposing the upper stage and payload to intense friction.

Had it been successful, the American satellite would have whirled into a lunar orbit and transmitted back crude pictures of the moon's surface and other information on its environment.

Representatives of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration conceded that the failure leaves the Soviet Union with a wide lead in the space race.

Dr. John Lindsay, chief of NASA's solar physics program, said that unless the space agency can find extra money somewhere, it probably will not try another moon shot for several months. He said a duplicate payload is available but no Atlas-Able.

INDIANS BACK NEHRU'S STAND IN BORDER FUSS

By HENRY S. BRADSHAW
NEW DELHI (AP) — The Indian Parliament's lower house overwhelmingly endorsed Prime Minister Nehru's handling of the border crisis with Communist China after India's veteran leader told it to either support him or replace him.

Only one or two "nos" were heard in the thunderous voice vote which approved Nehru's policies. The prime minister declared his policy of seeking a settlement by mediation is not appeasement and bluntly told Parliament he was ready to resign if it wanted another leader.

The packed house rang with cheers as he asserted: "But if, in balance, this house feels this government, this Prime Minister has got to face the challenge, then help him, and stand by him."

Krishna Won't Resign
Earlier in the debate Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon rejected opposition demands that he resign and Nehru took the floor to support his Cabinet officer.

Menon, who has been accused of too close friendship with the Peiping regime and with treating the border trouble too lightly, declared all necessary troops movements consistent with India's resources have been made to defend the country's border with Red China.

The vote for Nehru ended a three-day debate on the border dispute during which some opposi-

LUTHERANS TO PLAN MERGER COOPERATION

By TOM HENSHAW
AP Religion Writer

Relations are growing warmer between the massive, doctrine-conscious Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod and the other long-estranged major branches of American Lutheranism.

Leaders of the Missouri Synod and the National Lutheran Council met last week in Chicago in the first of several exploratory discussions aimed at discovering areas of cooperation.

Lutheran unity is not an immediate goal, both sides hasten to explain.

Cooperation Test
"We are trying to see how far cooperation can go," says a spokesman for the Missouri Synod, the second largest Lutheran Church with 2,200,000 members. "We're trying to find out what we can do and what we can't do together."

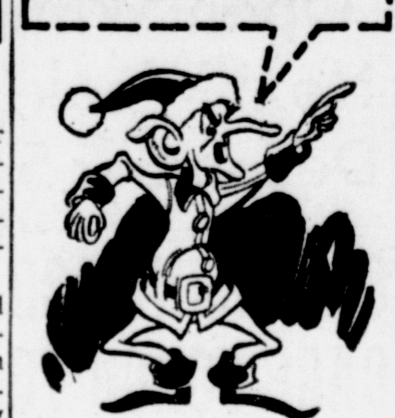

"It's the first real break in the Lutheran log jam," he adds. The areas of cooperation being explored are in what a NLC spokesman calls "external things," those not directly related to worship or doctrine.

Missouri Synod and five smaller Lutheran bodies loosely allied in the Synodical Conference hold that full doctrinal unity is a requirement for fellowship or free exchange of pulpits and altars. Others have more liberal views of fellowship.

There always has been some element of division among American Lutherans, chiefly along Old World nationalistic lines. But lately Lutherans have been most active in intradenominational mergers.

"SANTA and the ICE KING"

Starts December 7 in THE GETTYSBURG TIMES

United Evangelical Lutheran Churches, all members of the NLC, will join formally as a new church of 2,250,000 members on Jan. 1, 1961.

The United, Augustana, Finnish Evangelical (Suomi Synod) and American Evangelical Lutheran Churches, also NLC members, will unite in a new three-million-member church, perhaps by 1961.

The mergers will render the National Lutheran Council virtually unnecessary, since its membership would be reduced to three—or two, if the member Lutheran Free Church joins one of the merged groups.

If some large area of cooperation can be established between the Missouri Synod and the NLC it is possible the council will emerge as a radically different organization, its members cooperating on a more limited basis.

Paid $5,000 To Jockeys To Play Firm's Records

NEW YORK (AP) — Don Anthony, singer and record manufacturer, says he gave Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan two cancelled checks as evidence he distributed payola to disc jockeys.

Anthony, 31, questioned Friday at Hogan's office, said later he paid about $5,000 to out-of-town disc jockeys to plug his records four years ago. He said he had not made any pay-offs in New York.

The singer first had asked for police protection, saying he received some threatening phone calls. When he appeared for questioning, Anthony said he had changed his mind and didn't want a guard.

Denies Getting Paid Also questioned was Scott Muni, a disc jockey for radio station WMCA and first vice president of the Disc Jockey Assn., Inc., which claims 200 members.

Upon leaving Hogan's office, Muni told newsmen he never had taken payments to plug records over WMCA. "In New York I've never been offered money," Muni said.

He added however, that he had been approached "in a general way" out of town. He did not elaborate.

Wants Freed's Books Hogan's office announced that Jack Lynn, program director for WNEW-TV, had been subpoenaed to produce next Monday the books of disc spinner Alan Freed.

The district attorney's office said Lynn himself was not involved.

Freed, dropped by the American Broadcasting Co. as well as WNEW, has been subpoenaed to appear Monday before a Manhattan grand jury probing payola—payments for getting records plugged.

Freed bowed out of WNEW Friday, having been allowed to finish out the week with his "Big Beat" TV program. At the conclusion of the show he told his fans: "I'll be back on the air soon. I've done nothing wrong."

DO YOU HAVE ARTHRITIS?

Here is a message you will want to read.

Your doctor can tell you there is absolutely no known cure for arthritis. Medical research specialists are now engaged in several projects which, it is felt, will ultimately help in finding a cure, but as yet none has been found. Naturally, we all live in hope they will be successful, but until that time we must be content to get the best relief possible.

Right now there is a fast, safe and effective relieving agent available called Pruvu. Pruvu's ingredients have been used in hospitals and clinics, prescribed by doctors, and have helped scores of men and women to lead happy and full lives. You can be sure nothing is faster, safer or has been proven more effective than Pruvu for temporary easing of a minor arthritic condition or its related diseases... rheumatism, neuritis, sciatica, lumbago and bursitis. And it's wonderful for backache and everyday muscular aches and pains too. Try Pruvu today. Ask your druggist for a generous 15-tablet TRIAL SIZE BOTTLE. You must be satisfied with the results or your purchase price will be refunded by the maker. There are larger, economy sizes also, for continued use.

CHINESE REDS HOLD MARINE FOR SIX HOURS

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department sought more information today about the puzzling case of the kidnaped U.S. Marine sergeant and the Chinese Communist defector who did not defect.

Sgt. Robert Armstrong was held for about six hours Friday in the garage of the Chinese Communist consulate in Bombay, India. He was released after repeated efforts by the Bombay police to obtain his freedom.

Armstrong is a native of Martinez, Calif.

A State Department spokesman said more information was needed from the American consul general in Bombay before it could be decided what—if anything—could be done about the incident.

Seized Friday Morning

Armstrong was seized outside the Red Chinese consulate office when he showed up there early Friday morning with a Chinese Export-Import Corp. official who, on Thursday afternoon, had asked for political asylum in the United States.

The would-be defector was named as Chang Chien-yuh. He had told officials at the U.S. consulate that he was fed up with the regimentation of his life under communism and wanted to come to America. At the same time, the State Department here reported, he had "shown extreme anxiety for his safety."

A consulate official whom the State Department did not identify took Chang and Armstrong to a beach cottage at Juhu, a resort 15 miles from Bombay, and left them there overnight.

"Changed His Mind"

Friday morning, the State Department said, Chang "indicated

GETS SIX WEEKS TO JOIN HUBBY

POTTSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A

Hungarian woman in Canada, separated from her husband since October 1956, has six more weeks to seek permission to join him here. Then she must leave Canada.

Word of the extension was reported by Michael Byrne, secretary to Sen. Joseph S. Clark (D-Pa.), who is trying to get Mrs. Engel into the United States.

Her husband, Mano, left Hungary during the uprising there three years ago. Mrs. Engel was too ill to accompany him but later she went to Australia and received a Canadian visa.

Byrne said he received the information in a telegram from W. A. McFaul, eastern district superintendent of immigration in Canada.

It is estimated that almost half of all American drivers get their motor vehicle licenses before official tests of vision were required.
